AN ACT

For the relief of J. M. Pendarvis, Junior.

J. M. Pendarvis,
Jr.

62 Stat. 985.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $15,000 to J. M. Pendarvis, Junior, of Edgefield, South Carolina, in full settlement of his claims against the United States based upon the injuries and disabilities he suffered as the result of an assault by members of the United States Army on August 6, 1963, at the time of the Army maneuvers designated Swift Strike Operation. This claim is not cognizable under the tort claims provisions of title 28 of the United States Code by reason of the exception provided in subsection (h) of section 2680 of that title. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved November 6, 1966.
